

Dr. Arkin's course on the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke
(Including the Jewish thought in the time of Our Lord)

Wednesdays at 9:45 am; repeated at 7:00 pm

January and March 2012

Immacolata Church Meeting Room

8900 Clayton Road, 63117

This DVD series is a college course taught by the late Irvin Arkin, Ph.D., a professor in the SLU Department of Theology. Dr Arkin was most noted for his courses on St. John and this course on the Synoptic Gospels.

Season 2: Our Lord's Public Ministry

Class 5            January 4            Beatitudes (This class will be extra long as we review some material from class 4)

Class 6            January 11            Miracles

Class 7            January 18            Parables

Class 8            January 25            Parables and Pre-Passion Narratives

Make-up Snow date    February 1 (We will push each class back one week in case of snow.)

Season 3: Passion and Resurrection Narratives

Class 9            February 29            Institution of Eucharist

Class 10            March 7                Passion Narratives

Class 11            March 14                Crucifixion and Resurrection Narratives

Class 12            March 21                Post-Resurrection Narratives and Commissioning

Make-up Snow date    March 28

Questions we will consider during Season 2:

- Could the Beatitudes be about me?
- Which son is really the "prodigal" son?
- Are the parables nice stories or are they calling me to do something?

Everyone is welcome to attend any session. There is no fee.
